

MEDIA TECH

ADVANCED SOLUTIONS

MISSION	MediaTech’s mission is to provide exceptional web-based training products and services. Founded in 2003 and Headquartered in Centerville, Iowa, many of the Team members enjoy wide reputations in training development that includes having developed more than 5000 seat hours of superior education and training products to business and government clients. Founders also led a DARPA funded research and development effort at Camp Dodge that ultimately became one of the premiere training development centers in the Department of Defense and to the development of the first web-based training course certified by the US Army’s Training Directorate.
